"When design narrates a story, art comes alive."

- Shiny Dabba

In an era dominated by mass production and passing trends, Shiny Dabba charts a distinctive course.

Shiny Dabba creates unique designs that pay homage to India's vibrant history and cultural heritage. Each piece seamlessly intertwines craft and design and each product carries a timeless creative soul in a contemporary avatar.

We bring you a meaningful range of premium men's accessories that are both timeless and on-trend.

SILVER***

Discover our exquisite range of handcrafted men's silver products, meticulously fashioned from 925 silver.

Embellished with natural precious stones and sparkling diamonds, each piece is a fashion statement with a rich historical backstory.

Inspired by history, our collection seamlessly merges timeless elegance with contemporary style.

Katar 16,000/-

This distinctive style of dagger, uniquely characterized by its H-shaped horizontal hand grip originated in the Indian sub-continent as a weapon for close combat and was immensely popular among the martial ruling clans of India in medieval times.

We present our inspired version of the majestic 'Katar' in a contemporary avatar as a spectacular brooch, handcrafted in pure silver and embellished with natural diamonds, showcasing the intricate craftsmanship of Jaipur's artisans as a stylish addition to the wardrobe of the suave gentleman with an appreciation for history and artistry.

Yantra 11,000/-

Embodying the protective aura of Maharaj Bhishan Singh's ancestral royal sword from Jaipur, the Yantric Square stands as a symbol of safeguarding for its wearers. This unique cufflink design not only captures the rarity of its essence but also the mystical significance it carries.

Elevate your style by incorporating the royal mysticism of the Talismanic Square from the Rajputi Swords. Let this living souvenir of history narrate the tale of valor in every detail.

Rampur Pesh-Qabz 22,500/-

Inspired by the historical Pesh-Qabz of Kalb Ali Khan, the Nawab of Rampur in the 19th century, we introduce a brooch pin that artfully blends cultural heritage with a contemporary aesthetic. We present the majestic Pesh-Qabz of Rampur in pure silver, handcrafted intricately by the artisans of Jaipur adding a nonchalant charm to your persona with this symbol of history. This accessory stands as a testament to our commitment to infusing historical inspiration into modern elegance.

Mudra(Ujjain) 13,500/-

Inspired by the ancient Kārṣāpaṇas (which were silver pieces stamped with symbols and usually issued by the Janapadas and Mahajanapadas, generally carrying minute mark or marks to testify their legitimacy) these cuff links offer an insight into the economic history of India.

These cufflinks derive inspiration from the historic coinage of Ujjain and feature the 'Bull' which is important symbolism since the bull's domestication was an important step in the agricultural development of most ancient societies.

Jambya 21,000/-

Presenting Jambya, a brooch pin artfully designed in pure silver. It draws inspiration from the traditional Jambya dagger of Yemen, a symbol of prestige and valour. This homage not only captures elegance but also highlights the deep historical ties between Yemen and India, where Yemeni mercenaries were once prominent in princely courts.

Add the elements of the forgotten past and glorious history to your style with this fusion of cultural heritage and exquisite craftsmanship.

Surya Brooch Pin 4,000/-

Embrace a touch of heritage and a love for all things stylish with our 925 sterling silver brooch pin, artfully inspired by the ancient sun symbol. It is a fusion of timeless elegance and a nod to the past, allowing you to make a unique and meaningful style statement.

Ashwa Khanjar 21,000/-

Influenced by the historical Khanjar of Mahbub Ali Khan, the Nizam of Hyderabad, Shiny Dabba introduces a meticulously crafted brooch pin in pure silver.

The Ashwa Khanjar seamlessly intertwines the history of the original "Tees Maar Khan" of Deccan—the one who has killed thirty tigers—with a modern aesthetic, reflecting Shiny Dabba's essence of framing historical inspirations into modern pieces of style.

Siya Ram Coin 26,000/-

Somewhere around 1604-1605, the Mughal emperor, Akbar paid tribute to the Hindu deities, Rama and Sita by minting coins in their honor.

Crafted in both silver and gold, these coins symbolized a distinctive fusion of artistic and cultural influences.

Inspired by the spirit of that harmonious era, we proudly introduce our bandhgala buttons set, meticulously crafted in silver.

Available in both silver and gold finish.

Bharatpurpur Pesh-Qabz 22,500/-

Drawing inspiration from the historical Pesh-Qabz of Jashwant Singh, the Maharaja of Bharatpur, Shiny Dabba presents a meticulously crafted Silver brooch pin. This piece of adornment is a testament to martial traditions and the royalty of Bharatpur, conjoining the centuries old glory with a contemporary offering. For people who carry the tales of glorious history.

Quimbaya Artifacts Cufflinks 11,000/-

Inspired by the ancient Quimbaya gold artefacts and figures, we bring the symbolism of Colombian artistry in pure silver, representing an intriguing mystique and natural presence.

This piece of jewellery is a fusion of history and style, making it both a fashion statement and wearable art that honours a rich cultural heritage.

Sharad Poornima Jama Buttons 30,000/-

Inspired by the gold-dyed royal dress on the white cotton base, the Sharad Purnima Jama, traditionally worn by the Maharaja of Jaipur. Presenting an unconventionally royal statement—a button to adorn your bandhgalas, adding an opulent yet subliminal charm with the elegant combination of pristine white and golden intricacies to your style. Infused with a hint of Jaipur's royal craftsmanship, the design pays homage to the regal traditions and history of the Pink City.

Langur Cufflinks 7,000/-

Inspired by one of the most famous Parkour artists of Jaipur, The Langur Cufflinks are intricately handcrafted in pure silver to add a raw charm to your style.

The Langur, carries the essence of these mischievous yet mystical creatures. Often seen with the mythical divinity and sometimes with innocent mischief. As the Pink City is their abode, The Langur is a representative of Jaipur in all its rawness and innocence.

Amoghbbhuti Mudra 13,500/-

The Amoghbbhuti Mudra draws inspiration from the historical Indo-Greek coins issued by King Amoghabhuti of the ancient kingdom of Kuninda around 2nd century BCE. The silver drachma features a Brahmi legend and a symbolic representation of the 'three jewels of Buddhism'—the Buddha, the Dharma, and the Sangha along with a Deer crowned by two cobras and deity of prosperity, Lakshmi attending the deer. This unique design encapsulates the rich numismatic heritage spanning from 200 BCE to 950 CE.

Bring back the ancient rarity handcrafted in pure silver and adorn yourself with elegance, rarity and history!

Quimbaya Artifacts Brooch Pin 6,000/-

Shiny Dabba's brooch design blends ancient Quimbaya artifact artistry with modern elegance, featuring intricate craftsmanship inspired by the mystique of the civilization's goldsmithing. This piece of jewellery is a fusion of history and style, making them both a fashion statement and wearable art that honors a rich cultural heritage.
